University
Ordinances how made

46. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this section, University Ordinances shall be made by the Syndicate :

Provided that no Academic Ordinance shall be made except on the recommendation of the Academic Council.

Regulations

47. (1) The Authorities and other Bodies of the University may make Regulations consistent with this Act, the Statutes and the University Ordinances,-

- (a) laying down the procedure to be observed at their meetings and the number of members required to form a quorum;
- (b) providing for all matters which under this Act, the Statutes or the University Ordinances are to be prescribed by Regulations; and
- (c) providing for all other matters solely concerning such Authorities not provided for by this Act, the Statutes or the University Ordinances.

(2) Every Authority or body of the University shall make Regulations providing for the giving of notice to the members of such Authority or body of the dates of meetings and of the business to be considered at meetings and for the keeping of a record of the proceedings of meetings.

(3) The Syndicate may direct the amendment, in such manner as it may specify, of any Regulation made under this section or the annulment of any Regulation made under subsection (1):

Provided that any Authority or body of the University which is dissatisfied with any such direction may prefer an appeal to the Chancellor whose decision in the matter shall be final.

48. (1) No College or institution shall be affiliated unless it fulfils the conditions embodied in this Act. Colleges

(2) In all matters connected with affiliation or disaffiliation the Syndicate shall be guided by the recommendation of the Academic Council.

(3) The conditions of residence and instructions in the affiliated colleges shall be prescribed by the University Ordinances and every affiliated college shall be subject to inspection by any officer of the University authorised, in this behalf, by the Syndicate or the Vice-Chancellor.

(4) Where a college desires to add to the courses of instruction in respect of which it is affiliated the procedure prescribed shall, so far as may be, be followed.

(5) The Syndicate may, after due enquiry, withdraw the recognition granted to a college which has failed to comply with the conditions prescribed by the Statutes and University Ordinances or imposed by the Syndicate at the date of recognition or at any later date. The Syndicate shall give the college an opportunity of appearing at any such enquiry as aforesaid and of making representations on its own behalf. The Syndicate shall inform the college of its decision.

49. (1) Every affiliated non-Government college shall be a public educational institution; and the whole of its funds shall be appropriated to its own educational purposes and shall be fully controlled by its Governing Body. General Provision relating to colleges

(2) Each affiliated non-Government college or institution shall be managed by a regularly constituted Governing Body. The constitution, powers and duties of the Governing Body shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes:

Provided that the Governing Body of the affiliated Government college shall be constituted according to the rules framed by the Government.

(3) The Principal or Head of a college shall be responsible for the internal administration and discipline of the college.

(4) Every college shall satisfy the Syndicate that adequate financial provision is available for its continued and efficient maintenance, either in the form of an endowment or by an undertaking given by the body maintaining it.

(5) Tuition and other fees fixed by a college shall not be below the minimum rates or above the maximum rates prescribed by the University Ordinances in this behalf.

(6) Every college shall comply with the relevant Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations of the University.

(7) Admission of the students to a college shall be subject to the conditions prescribed by the University Ordinances and Regulations in this behalf.

(8) Each college or institution shall ordinarily conform to the University terms, vacations and holidays.

(9) Every college shall maintain such registers and records as may be prescribed by the University Ordinances and furnish such statistical and other information as the University may, from time to time, specify.

(10) Every college shall submit each year, by a date to be fixed by the Syndicate, a report to the Syndicate, on the working of the college during the previous year, giving the particulars and circumstances of any change in the staff on the management, the number of students and a statement of income and expenditure and such other information as may be required.

(11) When a college ceases to exist with the sanction of the University, the disposal of its assets, where not specifically provided for, shall be settled by the Governing Body and the University in consultation with the Government. If these Bodies fail to reach an agreement, the Government shall appoint an arbitrator whose decision shall be final.

(12) Every Governing Body shall maintain a Provident Fund for the benefit of members of its teaching staff in accordance with rules prescribed by the Government.

(13) All trust funds belonging to a non-Government college or under the control of the Governing Body shall be shown separately in the accounts of the college.

(14) Investment of funds belonging to a non-Government college or under the control of the Governing body shall be made in property and securities authorised by law for the investment of trust funds of such other classes of security as may, from time to time, be approved by the Government.

(15) The salaries, grades and conditions of service including efficiency and discipline rules for all teachers employed by non-Government affiliated colleges shall be determined by University Ordinances.

50. Every student of the University shall reside at such places and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Statutes and the University Ordinances. Residence

51. The Halls of the University shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes. Halls

52. (1) The Hostels shall be such as may be approved and licensed by the Syndicate on such general or special conditions as may be prescribed by the University Ordinances. Hostels

(2) The Wardens and Superintending staff of Hostels shall be appointed in such manner as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) The conditions of residence in Hostels shall be prescribed by the University Ordinances and every Hostel shall be subject to inspection by any member of the Discipline Board authorised in this behalf by the Board and by the officer of the University authorised in this behalf by the Syndicate.

(4) The Syndicate shall have power to suspend or withdraw the licence of any Hostel which is not conducted in accordance with the conditions prescribed by the University Ordinances.

Admission to
courses

53. (1) Admission of students to the University for undergraduate, post-graduate and other courses shall be governed by the rules framed by an Admission Committee appointed for that purpose by the Academic Council.

(2) Students shall not be eligible for admission to a course of study for a degree in the University or any of its affiliated colleges, unless they have passed the Intermediate Examination or the Higher Secondary Examination of the Boards of Intermediate and Secondary Education in Bangladesh, or any other Authority incorporated by any law for the time being in force in Bangladesh, or any examination recognised under the Statutes as equivalent thereto, and possess such further qualifications as may be prescribed by the University Ordinances.

(3) The conditions under which students may be admitted to the diploma courses of the University shall be prescribed by the University Ordinances.

(4) For the purpose of admission to a course of study for a degree the University may recognise as equivalent to its own degrees, any degree conferred by any other University, or as equivalent to the Intermediate or Higher Secondary Examination, any examination other than the Intermediate or Higher Secondary Examination of a recognised University or Board in such manner as may be prescribed by the University Ordinances.

Examinations

54. (1) All arrangements for the conduct of Examination shall be made by the Controller of Examinations under the general control of the Vice-Chancellor.

(2) The Academic Council shall appoint Examination Committees. The constitutions, powers and duties of Examination Committees shall be prescribed by the University Ordinances.

(3) If, in respect of an examination, any examiner becomes, for any cause, incapable of acting as such, the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint an examiner to fill the vacancy.

55. (1) Every salaried teacher and officer of the University shall be appointed on a written contract which shall be lodged with the Registrar of the University, and a copy of the contract shall be furnished to the teacher or officer concerned.

Conditions of Service

(2) The service conditions shall be determined without any prejudice to the freedom of the teacher or officer to hold any political views and to keep association with any lawful organisation outside the University and shall be clearly stated in the contract:

Provided that if a teacher or other salaried employee of the University seeks election as a Member of Parliament, he shall before the date for filing of nominations, resign from the service of the University.

(3) A teacher or officer of the University may be dismissed only on grounds of moral turpitude, misconduct or inefficiency, but no such teacher or officer shall be dismissed unless an enquiry into the charges of moral turpitude or inefficiency is held by an Enquiry Committee on which the teacher or the officer may be represented by a person nominated by him.

56. The Annual Report of the University shall be prepared under the direction of the Syndicate and shall be submitted to the Commission on or before the 31st day of January of the following academic session.

Annual Report

57. (1) The annual accounts and balance-sheet of the University shall be prepared under the direction of the Syndicate and shall be audited by an authority to be nominated by the Commission.

Annual Accounts

(2) The accounts together with copies of the audit report shall be submitted to the Commission.

58. If any question arises regarding the interpretation of any provision of this Act or any Statutes, University Ordinances, or Regulations or as to whether any person has been duly nominated as, or is entitled to be a member of any Authority or other body of the University, the matter shall be referred to the Attorney-General of Bangladesh for his opinion and the Syndicate shall decide accordingly.

Interpretation

Removal of difficulties

59. If any difficulty arises with respect to the functioning of the University or in connection with the first meeting of any Authority of the University or otherwise in first giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Chancellor may, at any time, before all the Authorities of the University have been constituted, by order, make any appointment or do anything, consistent so far as may be with the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, which appears to him necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty and every such order shall have effect as if such appointment or action had been made or taken in the manner provided in this Act :

Provided that, before making any such order or taking any such action, the Chancellor shall ascertain and consider the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor.

Bar against membership of Authority

60. (1) No person shall be eligible to hold any office of the University or Colleges or be a member of any Authorities or other bodies of the University or the Colleges or to continue as such if he,-

- (a) is of unsound mind, deaf, mute or is otherwise incapacitated to discharge his functions;
- (b) is an undischarged insolvent;
- (c) has been convicted by a Court of law of an offence which involves moral turpitude;
- (d) had financial interest as an individual, as a partner or otherwise, in any firm which publishes, procures or supplies any book, either written or edited by him, prescribed by the University as a course of study of any examination conducted by the University unless specially permitted by the Syndicate :

Provided that, in the case of dispute or doubt, the Chancellor shall determine whether a person is disqualified under this section and his decision shall be final.

61. If any question arises as to whether any person has been duly elected or appointed as, or is entitled to be, a member of any Authority or other bodies of the University the matter shall be referred to the Attorney-General of Bangladesh for his opinion and the Syndicate shall decide accordingly.

Dispute as to constitution of University Authorities and bodies

62. Where any Authority of the University is given power by this Act or the Statutes to appoint Committees, such Committees shall, save as otherwise provided, consist of such members of that Authority as may be determined by it and such other persons, if any, as the Authority may determine.

Constitution of Committees

63. All casual vacancies among the members other than ex-officio members of any Authority or other body of the University shall be filled, as soon as may be, by the person or body who appointed, elected or nominated the members whose place has become vacant, and the person appointed, elected or nominated to a casual vacancy, shall be a member of such Authority or body for the residue of the terms for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

Filling of casual vacancies

¹[64. No act or proceedings of any Authority or other body of the University shall be invalid or be called in question merely on the ground of the existence of any vacancy in such Authority or body, or of the failure or defect in making or holding any appointment, nomination or election to, or of any other defect in the formation of, such Authority or body.]

Validity of proceedings, etc.

65. (1) In the event of any dispute arising out of a contract between the University and any officer or teacher of the University and any other matter not specifically provided for under this Act or the Statutes, the officer or teacher concerned shall have the right of appeal to the Chancellor to be submitted through the Vice-Chancellor of the University who shall submit the appeal to the Chancellor with his comments. The decision of the Chancellor on the appeal shall be final.

Appeals to Chancellor

¹ Section 64 was substituted by section 2 and the Schedule of the Universities Laws Amendment Ordinance, 1975 (Ordinance No. LXII of 1975).

(2) In the event of a dispute arising out of a contract between a college and an officer or teacher of the college or any other matter not specifically provided for under this Act or the Statutes, the officer or teacher concerned shall have the right of appeal to the Chancellor to be submitted through the President of the Governing body who shall submit the appeal to the Chancellor with his comments. The decision of the Chancellor on the appeal shall be final.

Pension and Provident Fund

66. (1) The University shall, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Statutes, constitute, for the benefit of its officers, teachers, clerical staff and other employees, such pension, group insurance, benevolent fund, provident fund or gratuity as it may deem fit.

(2) Where any provident fund has been constituted, the Government may declare that the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, shall apply to such funds as if it were a Government Provident Fund.

Statutory Grant

67. The University shall, for the purpose of this Act, receive annually from the Commission such amount as may be determined by the latter.

Repeal and Saving

68. (1) The Chittagong University Ordinance, 1966 (E. P. Ord. No. IX of 1966) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Chittagong University Ordinance, 1966, anything done, action taken, obligation or liability incurred, rights and assets acquired, person appointed or authorised, jurisdiction or power conferred, endowment, bequest, fund or trust created, donation and grant made, scholarship, studentship or exhibition instituted, affiliation granted and orders issued under any of the provisions of the said Ordinance, or Statutes, University Ordinances and Regulations made thereunder, so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or Statutes, University Ordinances and Regulations, made hereunder shall be continued and so far as may be, deemed to have been respectively done, taken, incurred, acquired, appointed, authorised, conferred, created, made instituted, granted or issued under this Act or the Statutes, University

Ordinances or Regulations made hereunder and any documents referring to any of the provisions of the said Ordinance, or Statutes, University Ordinances or Regulations made thereunder shall, so far as may be, considered to refer to the corresponding provision of this Act or the Statutes, University Ordinances or Regulations made hereunder.

69. Upon the coming into force of this Act the existing Syndicate, Academic Council and all other Authority, Committees and bodies constituted under the repealed Ordinance shall continue to function until a new Syndicate, Academic Council and other Authorities, Committees and bodies are duly constituted under this Act, and all persons holding office under the repealed Ordinance shall continue to function till new appointments or nominations are made or elections are held according to this Act.

Provided further that a Registered Graduate may, at any time after being registered as aforesaid, compound for the annual payment of fees by paying the sum of Taka one hundred only, and from the date of such payment shall continue to enjoy the privileges of a Registered Graduate, until his death or resignation without payment of any further fees:

Provided further that a Registered Graduate whose name has been struck off the roll of Registered Graduates due to non-payment of arrears, may be registered as life member on payment of Taka one hundred at a time.

(4) A Registered Graduate who is liable to pay the annual fee may pay such fee at any time during the session, but if he fails to pay the fee due for any academic year by a date prescribed by University Ordinances he shall not be entitled to exercise any rights or enjoy any privileges of a Registered Graduate during the Academic year in question.

(5) If a Registered Graduate who is liable to pay the annual fee fails to pay the fee during any academic year his name shall be removed from the register of Registered Graduates, provided that he shall be re-admitted in any subsequent academic year as a Registered Graduate if he pays all arrears of fees up to the year of re-admission.

(6) Application for enrolment and for re-admission as a Registered Graduate shall be made in forms prescribed by the University Ordinances.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Statutes, the rights and privileges of a Registered Graduate shall terminate when the name of a Registered Graduate is removed under section 58 with effect from the date of the order of the Chancellor removing his name.

(8) All disputes relating to compliance with the provisions of the Act, Statutes and University Ordinances regarding registration of graduates shall be decided by a Tribunal consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, one member of the Syndicate nominated by the Syndicate and one member of the Academic Council nominated by the Academic Council, and the decision of the Tribunal shall be final. Each party shall bear its own expenses including expenses incurred or compensation claimed by its nominee. The parties may be represented by the lawyers or other authorised agents before the Tribunal. The procedure of the Tribunal shall be determined by the Tribunal itself.

(9) Registered Graduates shall be entitled to receive the Annual reports of the University and shall be entitled to use University Library in such manner as may be prescribed by the University Ordinances.

12. (1) The qualifications of recognised teachers of the University shall be such as may be determined by the University Ordinances.

Recognition of teachers

(2) All applications for the recognition of teacher of University shall be made in such manner as may be laid down by the Regulations made by the Syndicate in that behalf.

(3) The period of recognition of a teacher as professor or Associate professor shall be determined by the University Ordinances made in that behalf. A person, in the service of a college, recognised as a teacher of the University otherwise than as Professor shall continue to be recognised so long as he is in the service of the college.

(4) The Syndicate may, on a reference from the Vice-Chancellor, withdraw recognition from a teacher.

Affiliation

13. (1) A college applying for affiliation to the University shall make an application in the prescribed form to the Registrar so as to reach him not later than 15th October preceding the Academic year from which the affiliation sought is to take effect and shall satisfy the Syndicate,-

- (a) that the college is to be under the management of a Governing Body;
- (b) that the strength and qualifications of the teaching staff and conditions governing their tenures of office are such as to make due provision for the courses of instruction, teaching or training to be undertaken by the college and that adequate provision has been made for guidance and counselling of the students and for tutorials;
- (c) that the buildings in which the college is to be located are suitable and that provision is made in conformity with the Statutes and University Ordinances for the residence in the college Hostel or in lodgings approved by the college of students not residing with parents or guardians and for the supervision and physical and general welfare of students including facilities for sports, games and athletics and that, facilities would also be provided on the campus where teachers and students could meet informally;
- (d) that due provision has been made or will be made for a Library large enough which will remain open long enough to act as a work room where students are able to study privately during off periods and outside college hours;
- (e) where affiliation is sought in any branch of experimental science that arrangements have been or will be made for imparting instruction in that branch of science in a properly equipped laboratory or museum;
- (f) that due provision will, so far as circumstances may permit, be made for residence of the Principal and some members of the teaching staff in or near the college or the place provided for the residence of the Students;

- (g) that the financial resources of the college are such as to make due provision for its continued maintenance and efficient working. The management shall satisfy the University that it can meet a part of the maintenance cost of the college from its own resources; and
- (h) that the affiliation of the college having regard to the provision made for students by other colleges in the same neighbourhood, will not be injurious to the interest of education or discipline.

(2) The application shall further contain an assurance that after the college is affiliated, transfer or management and all changes in the teaching staff shall forthwith be reported to the Syndicate.

(3) On receipt of the application under paragraph (1) the Syndicate shall,-

- (a) direct a local inquiry to be made by a competent person or persons authorised by the Syndicate in this behalf in respect of matters referred to in paragraph (1) and such other matters as may be deemed necessary and relevant;
- (b) make such further inquiry as may be necessary; and
- (c) decide the question on the recommendation of the Academic Council whether the application should be granted or refused either in whole or in part.

(4) The Syndicate shall prescribe the minimum number of teachers required and the scope of teaching in each affiliated college.

(5) Every teacher in an affiliated college, other than Government college, shall be employed under a written contract stating the conditions of the service and the salary to be paid to him. A copy of this contract shall be lodged with the University.

14. (1) Every college affiliated to the University shall furnish such reports, returns and other information as the Syndicate may require to enable it to judge the efficiency of the college.

Inspection and Reports

(2) The Syndicate shall cause each such college to be inspected, from time to time, by one or more competent persons authorised by the Syndicate in this behalf.

(3) The Syndicate may call upon any college so inspected to take, within a specified period, such action as may appear to the Syndicate to be necessary.

Teaching in the College and co-operation between colleges and the University

15. (1) A college shall provide instruction in such subjects and up to such standard as it may be authorised to do, from time to time, by the Syndicate on the advice of the Academic Council.

(2) A college may not, without the previous permission of the Syndicate to be granted after consultation with the Academic Council, suspend instruction in any subject which it is authorised to teach.

(3) The Syndicate may, after considering the advice of the Academic Council and in consultation with authorities of the college or colleges concerned, provide on a basis of co-operation, teaching among the colleges themselves and between colleges and the University.

(4) Lecture delivered by a teacher of the University for the benefit of students of the University may be thrown open to students of colleges with the prior approval of the Vice-Chancellor, and on the basis of application submitted by the students through the Principals of their respective colleges. Similarly, lectures delivered by a recognised teacher of the University for the benefit of students of his own college may be thrown open to students of any other colleges or of the University with the prior approval of the Vice-Chancellor:

Provided that such outside students shall not be granted permission by the Principal of the college at which lecture takes place to attend the lecture unless an application is submitted through Principals of their respective colleges for the purpose.
