THE SCHEDULE

THE EXCISE DUTY ON MINERALS (LABOUR WELFARE) ACT, 1967

ACT NO. VIII OF 1967

[10th June, 1967]

An Act to impose a duty of excise on certain minerals for financing measures for promoting the welfare of labour employed in the mining industry.*

WHEREAS it is expedient to impose a duty of excise on certain minerals for financing measures for promoting the welfare of labour employed in the mining industry and to provide for the administration and utilisation of the proceeds of such duty and for matters ancillary thereto;

It is hereby enacted as follows:-

1. (1) This Act may be called the Excise duty on Minerals (Labour Welfare) Act, 1967.

Short title, extent and commencement

(2) It extends to the whole of ¹[Bangladesh].

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,-

Definitions

(a) “Commissioner” means the Mines Labour Welfare Commissioner appointed under section 9, and includes any officer authorised in writing by the Commissioner to exercise or perform any of his powers or functions under this Act;

(b) “Fund” means the Mines Labour Housing and General Welfare Fund constituted under section 4;

* Throughout this Act, the words “Government” and “Taka” were substituted for the words “Central Government” and “rupee” or “rupees” respectively by section 3 and the Second Schedule of the Bangladesh Laws (Revision and Declaration) Act, 1973 (Act No. VIII of 1973).

¹ The word “Bangladesh” was substituted for the word “Pakistan” by section 3 and the Second Schedule of the Bangladesh Laws (Revision and Declaration) Act, 1973 (Act No. VIII of 1973).

- (c) "Housing Board" means the Mines Labour Housing Board constituted under section 6;
- (d) "Miners Welfare Board" means the Miners Welfare Board constituted under section 8; and
- (e) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

Imposition and collection of duty

3. (1) There shall be levied and collected as a cess for the purposes of this Act a duty of excise on all minerals specified in the Schedule despatched from the mines, at such rate not less than fifty ¹[Poisha] and not more than one Taka per ton as may be fixed by the Government by notification in the official Gazette:

Provided that the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt from liability to the duty any of such minerals or any class thereof.

(2) The duty levied under sub-section (1) shall, subject to and in accordance with rules made in this behalf under this Act, be collected by such agencies (hereinafter referred to as the collecting agencies) and in such manner as may be prescribed.

Mines Labour Housing and General Welfare Fund

4. (1) There shall be constituted a Fund to be called the Mines Labour Housing and General Welfare Fund.

(2) On the last date of each month or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, the proceeds of the duty levied under section 3 shall be paid by the collecting agencies into the ²[Bangladesh Bank] or into any Government treasury or sub-treasury in the prescribed manner, and shall be credited to the Fund and apportioned under two separate accounts, to be called respectively the housing account of the Fund and the general welfare account of the Fund, in such manner and in such proportion as the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, determine.

¹ The word "Poisha" was substituted for the word "Paisa" by section 3 and the Second Schedule of the Bangladesh Laws (Revision and Declaration) Act, 1973 (Act No. VIII of 1973).

² The words "Bangladesh Bank" were substituted for the words "State Bank of Pakistan" by section 3 and the Second Schedule of the Bangladesh Laws (Revision and Declaration) Act, 1973 (Act No. VIII of 1973).

(3) There shall also be credited to-

(a) the housing account Fund-

- (i) any grants made thereto by the Government;
- (ii) rents if any, realised from housing accommodation constructed out of such account; and
- (iii) any other moneys received by the Housing Board; and

(b) the general welfare account of the Fund-

- (i) any grants made thereto by the Government; and
- (ii) any other moneys received for the general welfare of the miners.

5. (1) The cost of administering the Fund and the salaries and allowances, if any of the Commissioners, Inspectors, Welfare Officers and other staff appointed to supervise or carry out measures financed from the Fund shall be defrayed out of the Fund, and shall be apportioned between and debited to the housing account and the general welfare account in such manner as may be prescribed.

Expenditure
from the Fund

(2) The Government may out of the general welfare account of the Fund pay annually grants-in-aid to such of the mine owners as maintain to the satisfaction of the Commissioner dispensary services of the prescribed standard for the benefit of labour employed in their mines, so however that the amount payable as grant-in-aid to the owner of a mine shall not exceed-

- (a) such proportion of the duty recovered in respect of the mineral dispatched from the mine less the proportionate cost of recovery as the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, fix, or
- (b) the amount spent by the owner in the maintenance of the dispensary service, as determined by the Commissioner, whichever is less:

Provided that no grant-in-aid shall be payable in respect of any dispensary service maintained by the owner of the mine if the amount expended thereon, as determined by the Commissioner, is less than eighty Taka per mensem.

(3) The balance of the moneys in the general welfare account of the Fund shall be applied by the Government to meet expenditure incurred in connection with measures which are in the opinion of the Government necessary or expedient to promote the welfare of the labour employed in the mining industry.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-section (3), the moneys in the general welfare account of the Fund may be utilised to defray-

- (a) the cost of measures for the benefit of labour employed in the mining industry directed towards-
 - (i) the improvement of public health and sanitation, the prevention of disease, the provision and improvement of medical facilities, including the provision and maintenance of dispensary services in mines the owners of which do not receive grants-in-aid under sub-section (2);
 - (ii) the provision and improvement of water-supplies and facilities for washing;
 - (iii) the provision and improvement of educational facilities;
 - (iv) the improvement of standards of living, including nutrition, amelioration of social conditions, and the provision of recreational facilities;
 - (v) the provision of transport to and from work.
- (b) the grant to ¹[* * *] a local authority or the owner, agent or manager of a mine of money in aid of any scheme approved by the Government for any purpose for which moneys in the general welfare account of the Fund may be utilised;
- (c) the allowances, if any, of the members of the Mines Welfare Board and the amounts debit to the account under sub-section (1); and

¹ The words and comma “a Provincial Government,” were omitted by section 3 and the Second Schedule of the Bangladesh Laws (Revision and Declaration) Act, 1973 (Act No. VIII of 1973).

- (d) any other expenditure which the Government directs to be defrayed out of the moneys in the general welfare account of the Fund.

(5) The Government shall publish annually in the official Gazette an estimate of receipts into and expenditure from the general welfare account of the Fund together with a statement of the accounts and report of the activities financed during the previous year from the general welfare account of the Fund, and shall forward copies of such statement and report to the members of the Miners Welfare Board.

(6) The moneys in the housing account of the Fund shall be applied by the Housing Board to defray-

- (a) the cost of erecting, maintaining and repairing housing accommodation for labour employed in the mining industry and of providing services and facilities connected therewith;
- (b) the cost of preparing schemes, and of acquiring any land required, for the purposes referred to in clause (a);
- (c) the grant, subject to the previous approval of the Government, to ¹[* * *] a local authority or the owner, agent or manager of a mine of money in aid of any scheme approved by the Housing Board for the purposes referred to in clauses (a) and (b);
- (d) the allowances, if any, of the members of the Housing Board and the amounts debitable to the account under sub-section (1); and
- (e) any other expenditure which the Government directs to be defrayed out of the moneys in the housing account of the Fund.

(7) In May of each year the Housing Board shall submit to the Government a statement in the prescribed form of the estimated receipts into and expenditure from the housing account of the Fund for the ensuing financial year together with a report of the activities financed during the previous year from the housing account of the Fund, and may at any time during the ensuing financial year submit to the Government a supplementary statement and shall forward copies of such statements and report to the members of the Miners Welfare Board.

(8) The Housing Board shall comply with such direction as the Government may from time to time think fit to give in respect of expenditure from the housing account of the Fund.

(9) The Housing Board may invest moneys in the housing account of the Fund in securities of the Government ¹[* * *] in other securities.

(10) The Housing Board shall cause to be maintained such books of account, and prepare an annual statement of accounts in such manner, as may be prescribed.

(11) The Housing Board shall cause the housing account of the Fund to be audited annually by an auditor who shall be a chartered accountant within the meaning of the ²[Chartered Accountants Order, 1973 (P.O. No. 2 of 1973)] and as soon as the said account has been audited the Housing Board shall forward copies thereof together with copies of the report of the auditor thereon to the Government and to the members of the Miners Welfare Board.

(12) The Government shall have power to decide whether any particular expenditure is or is not debitable to the housing account or the general welfare account, of the Fund, and its decision shall be final.

¹ The words and commas “or, with the previous approval of the Central Government,” were omitted by section 3 and the Second Schedule of the Bangladesh Laws (Revision and Declaration) Act, 1973 (Act No. VIII of 1973).

² The words, comma, figures and brackets “Chartered Accountants Order, 1973 (P.O. No. 2 of 1973)” were substituted for the words, comma, figures and brackets “Chartered Accountants Ordinance, 1961(XII of 1961)” by section 3 and the Second Schedule of the Bangladesh Laws (Revision and Declaration) Act, 1973 (Act No. VIII of 1973).

(13) Before incurring any expenditure from the Fund other than expenditure of a routine or urgent nature, the Government or, as the case may be, the Housing Board shall consult the Miners Welfare Board.

6. (1) The Government shall, by notification in the official Gazette, constitute a Mines Labour Housing Board to prepare and carry out ¹[* * *] schemes financed from the housing account of the Fund for the provision of suitable housing accommodation for labour employed in mining industry, and to carry out other functions of the Housing Board under this Act.

Constitution,
etc., of the
Mines Labour
Housing Board

(2) The Commissioner shall be the Chairman of the Housing Board, and the other members thereof shall be appointed by the Government and shall be of such number and chosen in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The Housing Board shall be a body corporate by the name of the Mines Labour Housing Board, having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to acquire and hold property, both movable and immovable, and shall by the said name sue and be sued.

(4) No act done by the Housing Board shall be called in question on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Housing Board.

7. (1) The occupation by any person of any housing accommodation provided out of the housing account of the Fund shall be subject to payment of such rent by that person and compliance by him at all times with such conditions relating to his occupation of such accommodation as may be prescribed.

Provisions regarding housing accommodation

(2) Before any person occupies any such accommodation he shall be furnished with a copy of the conditions referred to in subsection (1), and if he so desires the said conditions shall be read over to him in a language which he understands; and the Housing Board shall cause to be published in such manner as it thinks best adapted for informing the persons concerned any changes which may from time to time be made in the said conditions.

¹ The commas and words “, subject to the previous approval of the Central Government,” were omitted by section 3 and the Second Schedule of the Bangladesh Laws (Revision and Declaration) Act, 1973 (Act No. VIII of 1973).

(3) If, in the opinion of the Housing Board, any person in occupation of any such accommodation fails or ceases to comply with any of the conditions referred to in sub-section (1), it may, by notice in writing, require him to vacate the accommodation on or before such date, not being less than thirty days after the service of the notice, as may be specified in the notice; and the occupation of such accommodation by such person or any dependent of him after the date so specified shall be unlawful, and such person or dependent may be evicted from such accommodation by use of such force as may be necessary.

(4) There shall be payable in respect of the occupation of any such accommodation as aforesaid rent at such rate as may be prescribed:

Provided that the Housing Board may remit, subject to compliance at all times with the conditions referred to in sub-section (1), either the whole or any part of the prescribed rent:

Provided further that where, in the case of any person who is by virtue of a remission under the first proviso paying either no rent or a reduced rent, the Housing Board has reason to believe that such person has contravened any of the said conditions, it may by notice in writing require such person to pay, for the period of occupation commencing immediately after the expiry of seven days of the service of the notice, rent for the accommodation occupied by him at the full prescribed rate.

(5) All rent payable in respect of the occupation of such accommodation as aforesaid, whether at the full prescribed rate or at a lesser rate, shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

Constitution,
etc., of the
Miners Welfare
Board

8. (1) The Government shall, by notification in the official Gazette, constitute a Miners Welfare Board to perform such functions as it may be required to perform by or under this Act or as the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, entrust to it.

(2) The members of the Miners Welfare Board shall be appointed by the Government and shall be of such number and chosen in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that the Board shall include an equal number of members representing Government, the owners of mines and workmen employed in the mining industry, and that at least one member of the Board shall be a woman.

(3) The Government shall appoint one of its officers to be the Chairman of the Miners Welfare Board.

9. (1) The Government may appoint a Mines Labour Welfare Commissioner and such number of inspectors, Welfare Officers and other staff as it thinks fit to supervise and carry out measures financed from the Fund.

Appointment and powers of officers

(2) The Commissioner or any Inspector or Welfare Officer may, with such assistance, if any, as he thinks fit, enter at all reasonable times any place which he considers it necessary to enter for the purpose of supervising or carrying out the measures financed from the Fund, and may do therein anything necessary for the proper discharge of his duties.

(3) Any person appointed under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the ¹[* * *] Penal Code.

10. The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make such amendments and modifications in the Schedule as it thinks fit.

Power to amend
Schedule

11. (1) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, and subject to the condition of previous publication, make rules to carry into effect the purposes of this Act.

Power to make

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules made under this section may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

- (i) the manner in which the duty levied under sub-section (1) of section 3 shall be collected, the agencies by whom the duty shall be collected, the persons who shall be liable to make the payments, the making of refunds, remissions and recoveries, the deduction by collecting
